St. James's, November 23.

THE following humble Addreſs having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Roxburghe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Commiſſion of the late General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE humbly beg Leave, with others of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, to congratulate you upon the happy Diſcovery your Majeſty has made of a horrid Conſpiracy againſt your Perſon and Government, which makes us with Joy to reflect upon the many Bleſſings of your auſpicious Reign, ſo ſignally owned of God, who has hitherto ſo viſibly diſplayed his Almighty Power and Goodneſs, in defeating the wicked Deſigns of your Enemies, and remarkably proſpering your wiſe Adminiſtration in Spite of all Oppoſition, and given juſt Occaſion to all Men to obſerve, That the Lord ſaveth his Anointed.

Next to our glorious Reformation, we eſteem the late happy Revolution, under the Conduct of King William of ever Glorious Memory, our moſt remarkable Deliverance from Popery and Slavery, and your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, our chief Security, under God, of our having theſe deareſt Bleſſings of Religion and Liberty preſerved to this and ſucceeding Generations.

As your Majeſty reigns by the juſteſt Title, the only lawful Sovereign of theſe your Dominions; ſo your Government, ever ſince your happy Acceſſion, has been ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed by its Wiſdom and Juſtice, by its Steadineſs and Clemency, that it is ſurprizing your Majeſty ſhould have one Enemy remaining amongſt all your Subjects.

But ſince our Times are ſo unhappy, as to produce a Race of degenerate Men, who forgetting all Regard to True Religion, and Duty to their Country, have entered into a Traiterous Conſpiracy againſt your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, bred up in all the Maxims of Arbitrary Government, and a Vaſſal to the Roman Antichriſt, we cannot but declare our utmoſt Deteſtation of their horrid Deſign: A Deſign ſo execrable in its Nature, and ſo dreadful in its Conſequences to us and all the Proteſtant Churches, that we tremble at the Thoughts of it.

'Tis not to be wondered at, that Profeſſed Papiſts devoted to the See of Rome, and Members of a Church long inured to Rebellion and Maſſacres, ſhould be engaged in ſuch a Helliſh Enterprize; but that Proteſtants ſhould concur with them, is ſo ſtrange, that it would be altogether incredible, if Experience did not ſhew it to be true.

As for us, Great Sir, we account it the Honour of the Church of Scotland, that we have never been ſo much as ſuſpected, either by Friends or Enemies, of Diſloyalty to your Majeſty, nor Diſaffection to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family; and that we have ſo often had your Majeſty's gracious Approbation of our Zeal for the Intereſt of your Government. From this Principle we have always judged a loyal Behaviour towards your Majeſty, a neceſſary Qualification of a Miniſter of this Church; and have not failed to caſt out from amongſt us, the few who at any time have acted otherwiſe.

As no Danger, nor Hatred from your Majeſty's Enemies, has hitherto deterred us from our Duty in our Stations to your Majeſty; ſo we ſhould be utterly unworthy of the ſacred Character we bear, as well as falſe to the many great Obligations we are under to ſo gracious a Sovereign, if we did not at all Times, and more eſpecially now when your Enemies are ſo inſolent, exert ourſelves with the utmoſt Zeal, in aſſerting your Majeſty's juſt Title, and inculcating upon the People under our Care, the moſt firm and unſhaken Loyalty to the beſt of Kings.

And whereas your Enemies, amongſt other vile Artifices, make uſe of impudent Lies and Falſhoods to diſparage your Perſon and Government, and to alienate the Hearts of ſome of your unwary Subjects from the Duty they owe unto your Majeſty, we ſhall always make it our Buſineſs to oppoſe ſuch Practices by undeceiving them, and encouraging their Loyalty, both by our Doctrine and Example.

That God may eminently bleſs and proſper your Majeſty, and long preſerve you, to be the Support of the Reformed Intereſt in Europe, and the Guardian of your People's Religion and Liberty; that he may continue to diſcover and defeat all the evil Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies, and give you the Hearts of all your Subjects; that your Royal Family, in all the Branches of it, may more and more flouriſh; that their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and their Royal Iſſue, may be long preſerved and ſignally bleſſed; that after your Majeſty has long ſerved God, and promoted the Good of Mankind on Earth, you may be crowned with a glorious Immortality in Heaven, is and ſhall be the Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders of the Church of Scotland, Members of the Commiſſion of the late General Aſſembly.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by Will. Mitchell, Moderator.

Edinb. Nov. 15, 1722.

St. James's, Nov. 23. The following humble Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by Mr. Matthew Clarke, accompanied by ſeveral of his Brethren, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; and they all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, of the three Denominations, in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE have ſo often return'd Thanks to Almighty God, for your Majeſty's peaceable Settlement upon the Britiſh Throne, and ſo heartily prayed for the Continuance of your happy Government, that we muſt of all People be the moſt inconſiſtent with ourſelves, if we ſhould not be very ſenſibly affected with the Kindneſs of divine Providence, in diſcovering the vile Deſigns of thoſe, who in Defiance of all even the moſt ſacred Ingagements, have been, and are ſtill fighting againſt their own Happineſs, and ſtriving to make themſelves and the whole Nation miſerable.

It grieves us that our Native Country ſhould produce ſuch Monſters of Ingratitude and Perfidiouſneſs. We are at a loſs to expreſs how much we abhor their Practices: And as for the Principles that lead into them, we cannot but account them as fooliſh as they are impious.

To imagine that a Proteſtant Kingdom ſhould flouriſh under the Influence of Popiſh Counſels, or our Religious and Civil Liberties be beſt ſecured, by ſacrificing them to the avowed Enemies of both, are Abſurdities too groſs to be digeſted, by any that know the Value of either.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace, are fully determined, always to recommend Loyalty and Fidelity to your Majeſty and your Government. And it is no ſmall Satisfaction to us, that we are engaged with a People ſo well diſpoſed in this Reſpect, as the Body of Proteſtant Diſſenters: Of whom we can with Safety declare, that in all Parts of the Kingdom, they adhere moſt inviolably to your Majeſty, as their only rightful and lawful Sovereign, and are very ſenſible of the many Bleſſings of your auſpicious Reign, which is not only juſt and equal at Home, but glorious Abroad, through the tender Concern which your Majeſty upon all Occaſions is pleaſed to diſcover, for the Liberties of Europe, and for our Proteſtant Brethren in foreign Parts.

And we pleaſe ourſelves with the Hopes, that the reſtleſs Attempts of a diſappointed Party, to make their Country a Scene of Blood, by bringing in upon us a Popiſh Pretender, will contribute to the fixing your Majeſty the firmer, if poſſible, upon the Throne, and will endear you the more to all your People, and the better ſecure to them and their Poſterity, the happy Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

Inclination (Great Sir) as well as Duty, will lead us to continue our ardent Prayers, that your Majeſty's invaluable Life may be long preſerved; that your Counſels may be proſpered; to the full Detection of the Traiterous Deſigns of your Enemies, and the ſtrengthning of our Common Security; and that the Crown may flouriſh in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe, in all ſucceeding Ages.

His Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this loyal and dutiful Addreſs. Your ſteady and conſtant Adherence and Affection to my Perſon and Government give you a moſt juſt Title to my Protection, on which you may always depend.

St. James's, Nov. 23. An humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenting Miniſters, and many Gentlemen, Merchants, and others reſiding within the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Abraham Elton, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Rector of the Pariſh, Curate of the Chapel, Gentlemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Corporation and Town of Deal, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Hercules Baker, Eſq; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm,

Stockholm, Oct. 24, O. S. Since the King of Sweden's Return hither, his Majeſty has been preſent in the Senate almoſt every Day. The Ruſſian Miniſter has renewed his Application to his Majeſty and the Senate, that they would conſent to give the Title of Emperour to the Czar his Maſter: He has not yet had a poſitive Anſwer, and it is thought will not have it till the States of the Kingdom meet. Baron Sparre ſets out from hence the next Week for Caſſel, where he will ſtay till he has the King of Sweden's Orders to go to Paris, which he will have as ſoon as the Notification of the King of France's Coronation comes hither. Baron Sparre is to proceed from the Court of France to that of Great Britain.

Cadiz, Nov. 10, N. S. The eight Spaniſh Ships of War lately returned hither from the Streights, are diſarming in order to be laid up. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Panther, Captain Atkins Commander, is arrived from Newfoundland, as is alſo the Drake Sloop from England, Captain Lingen Commander.

Paris, Nov. 23, N. S. The Day for the Departure of Mademoiſelle de Beaujolois for Spain is not yet fixed; but the Duke Regent preſſes it may be the End of this Week or Beginning of the next. The Ambaſſadour of the Order of Malta has certain Advices from Conſtantinople, that the Naval Armament of the Turks is deſigned for the Siege of Malta; and that this Reſolution was taken in the Divan, where the Mufti's Party carried it againſt the Admiral's. The French Knights of that Order have received Summons to be in a Readineſs, and are preparing accordingly for their Journey to Italy, thence to proceed to Malta on the next Summons from the Great Maſter: His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has been pleaſed to contribute a good Sum towards their Expences on this Occaſion.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majeſty's Ships Orford and Lenox, who were on board at the taking of a Prize known by the Name of the Grand Diable, alias the Noſtra Signora Catarina de la Guardia, on the 4th of June 1719; that they may receive their reſpective Shares of the Produce of the ſaid Prize and her Cargo, at Mr. James Henſhaw their Agent's Houſe, in George-Yard, on Little Tower-Hill, viz. Orford on Thurſday the 3d, and Lenox on Friday the 4th of January next; and ſuch Shares as are not then demanded may be received at the ſame Place on the firſt Thurſday of every Month for three Years to come.

African Houſe, Nov. 22, 1722.

Purſuant to the Reſolutions of the General Court of the Royal African Company of England held on Tueſday the 20th Inſtant, the Court of Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Company give Notice, that a Call of 5 l. upon every 100 l. Capital Stock in this Company being agreed to be made, the firſt Payment thereof being 2 l. per Cent. is to be made on or before the 20th of December next, and the other Payment being 3 l. per Cent. is to be made on or before the 1ſt Day of March following; and that ſuch of the Adventurers as ſhall pay down the whole 5 l. per Cent. on or before the ſaid 20th of December, ſhall be allowed for ſuch their prompt Payment a Diſcount of 2 l. per Cent. And the Transfer-Books of the ſaid Company will be ſhut up from after Thurſday the 6th, until after Thurſday the ſaid 20th of December next, in order to receive the ſaid Payment.
